

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL No.
10-10124-DPW

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JEFFREY L. CLEMENS

ORDER AND INITIAL STATUS REPORT

June 29, 2010

DEIN, M.J.

An Initial Status Conference was held before this court on Tuesday, June 29, 2010 pursuant to the provisions of Local Rule 116.5(A). Based on that conference, this court enters the following report and orders, to wit:

1. The government is in the process of producing additional documents requested by the defendant. The defendant is in the process of reviewing the materials produced by the government to date. The date by which the defendant must file a discovery letter is extended to July 23, 2010.
2. The government does not anticipate calling any expert witnesses.
3. The date for filing discovery and/or dispositive motions shall be set at the next status conference.
4. In this court's view, this is not a case involving unusual or complex issues for which an early joint conference of the district judge and the magistrate judge with counsel of record would be useful.
5. In this court's view, this is not a case involving features which would warrant special attention or modification of the standard schedule, except as provided herein.
6. It is too early to determine whether a trial is likely to occur.
7. This court finds and concludes, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and Section 5(b)(7)(b) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective December 2008) that the defendant requires additional time for the preparation of an effective defense, including time for review of the evidence, and consideration of alternatives concerning how best to proceed with this matter, and that the interests of justice outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant for a trial within seventy days of the return of an indictment.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that the Clerk of this Court enter excludable time for the period of June 8, 2010 through August 11, 2010, that being the period between the expiration of the initial order on excludable time and the next status conference.¹

8. Based upon the prior order of the court dated May 11, 2010 and the order entered contemporaneously herewith, at the time of the Final Status Conference on August 11, 2010 there will be zero (0) days of non-excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act and seventy (70) days will remain under the Speedy Trial Act in which this case must be tried.
9. A Final Status Conference and hearing on any discovery motions has been scheduled for August 11, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. Counsel for the respective parties shall file a Joint Memorandum addressing the matters set forth in LR 116.5(C)(1) through (9) before the close of business no less than THREE business days prior to that Status Conference. In addition, the parties shall include in the Joint Memorandum not only the periods of excludable time that are applicable, but also the amount of time remaining under the Speedy Trial Act before trial must commence, as well as the total amount of time which has been excluded.
